DELAND SHOW

A new method of awarding gold seals was tried out at the DeLand show this year. A special team of three judges awarded all the gold seals. The regular teams only awarded first, second, and third place awards. In this way all the gold seal bloom were judged with the same thoughts in mind. It seems to work out very well. There were 73 gold seals given. This is the most awarded at any one show so far.

Winners were:

Amateurs:
Single "Kanaka Girl" by Edward C. Wissner of Daytona Beach.
Double "Patricia Gautier" by D. L. "Uncle Bertie" Esterdahl of Cassadaga.
Sweepstakes went to R. A. Bowman of Daytona Beach.

Commercial:
Single "Radient" by Rittenmar Nursery of Sanford.
Double "Elephant Ear" by Carver & Roxy Nursery of Mt. Dora.

Sweepstakes went to Carver & Roxy also.

Best Bloom of show and best amateur bloom was the "Kanaka Girl", grown by Wissner.

Best Commercial bloom was the "Elephant Ear."

Best Seedling went to R. A. Bowman of Daytona Beach. It was a large double rose bloom.

Best Miniature was a "Mahogony" grown by Monroe's Hibiscus Nursery of Eagle Lake, Florida.
